

FOOD - FUN and ENTERTAINMENT

by Marion Frank

Livened up my Sunday evening with a visit to the Camel Stop Room of the Keyboard Lounge in Gardena. This Rozelle Gayle is a terrific entertainer with his exotic presentation of songs and wit, and his piano playing. Also you'll enjoy vocalist Laci Phillips, new songstress, along with the talented John Gabriel. And, of course the Ed Grady Trio all entertaining nitely, except Sunday.

Starting with the Winter season (after Labor Day) the Del Mar Lanes in Gardena will have a "Chuck Wagon Buffet," with all you can eat for only $1.75, every Saturday night from 6 to 9 p.m. Herb Smith, manager says, "you can't afford to eat at home." There also is a Buffet dinner League forming now... Mixed foursome Saturdays at 6 p.m. which includes: Bowling, Buffet Dinner, and 1.00 point margin... a terrific deal!

When you're staging a special event... such as a banquet, get-together, and especially a wedding reception, check with Warren Snyder at Caesars. You can have complete catering service, hot or cold hors d'oeuvres, the cake, champagne, and even a trio for entertainment... and no charge for the room!

Good luck and best wishes to partners Bill Smith and Chuck Kerhart with your new Pizza Palace in Gardena. Already there was private party planned for Monday, and I'm sure the folks will enjoy the good food, and also the fine new dining rooms. This is the third Pizza Palace to date, and it is located at 14008 Crenshaw. The outside and inside is of notable decor, and the dining rooms seat 300. I look for more to open in the near future?

Hear the new gal singing at the Open Hearth Monday night, and she's terrific. Especially her renditions of Irish tunes. The new songstress' name is Kitty Pugh, is that Irish? She is accompanied by accomplished pianist Paul Moore of course. Is Pat Patrons Irish?

Piano and banjo music is featured Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights at the Pizza Palace at Gardena and Sepulveda. They serve keg beer and sodas, and of course very good pizza. There's rinky-dink piano on Wednesday and Thursday nights.

The Serenata at 1831 Pacific Coast in Lomita which is under new management by owners Tom, Bill and Otto is now featuring the well known ELAYNE ROBERTS TRIO nightly except Tuesdays. There is dancing too. Open seven days a week, 10 a.m. to 2 a.m.

Last week to hear vocalist Lionel Ames at Little Caesars in Gardena, the place where you can choose your own steak on sight, and cooked to perfection. Entertainment also by the Stablemates — Dave and Tiny, nightly except Sundays.

Jungleland Is Breaking Records

Jungleland in Thousand Oaks is currently breaking all records for attendance, according to Heinz Ruhe, curator of the famous animal compound.

Not only the visitors but the animals appreciate the fact that Jungleland is a thousand feet above sea level and the temperature is always at least fifteen degrees cooler than the lower sections of the Valley.

Both the terrain and the climate are very much like that of Zanzibar, one of the more exotic spots on the globe and one that furnishes some of the more colorful and rare animals for the famed home of the motion picture and TV animal stars.

Jungleland is open daily from 9 a.m. and Wild Animal Shows are presented every day. Admission is $1.25 for adults and 50 cents for children with free parking included in the price of admission. Special group rates are available.

STARTER CABINS

If you want free plans for a vacation cabin which you can start small and add to, write Cabins, West Coast Lumbermen's Association, 1410 S. W. Morrison street, Portland 4, Oregon.

The Kingston Trio, brightest young stars in the realm of folk and popular music, make their first appearance in the Greek Theatre beginning Monday, September 9. Sharing musical honors with Henry Mancini, they will bring the Greek Theatre Association's Eleventh summer season to a spirited conclusion on Sunday, September 15.

Kingston Trio at Greek Theater

Henry Mancini, popular composer-conductor who joins forces with The Kingston Trio at the Greek Theater September 9 through the 15, is the epitome of Hollywood stardom! With a classical background of Julliard School of Music and private studies with Ernst Krenek, Mario Castelnuovo-Tedesco and Dr. Alfred Sendry, he moved through the movie realm of film scores to top ranking composer in a relatively short period of ten years.

In 1952 Mancini joined the music department of Universal-International Studios years contributed to over and during the next six years contributed to over 100 films, most notably "The Glenn Miller Story," "The Benny Goodman Story" and "Touch of Evil."

Shortly after leaving U-I, he was engaged by producer-director Blake Edwards to score the TV series "Peter Gunn" and the rest is brilliantly recorded. Using the jazz idiom, he created an instant success. A subsequent recording of "Music From Peter Gunn" has sold more than a million copies and was awarded two Grammys by the National Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences. Edwards and Mancini since have collaborated on another hit series, "Mr. Lucky" and the success

The Sultan of Satire, ROZELLE GAYLE his enchanting presentation of song, his wit in the Camel Stop Room of the exotic Keyboard Lounge in Gardena. He has hypnotized audiences with his talents for almost a year. His mastery of the quick "double take" wit is amusing and fascinating. The Keyboard Lounge is located at 2528 W. Rosecrans, between Crenshaw and Van Ness in Gardena.

story was repeated. Frequent ventures back into the movie world have resulted in award winning scores for "High Time," "The Great Imposter," "Mr. Hobbs Takes A Vacation," "Bachelor in Paradise," "Breakfast at Tiffany's," "Hawaii," "Experiment in Terror" and most recent, "Days of Wine and Roses." For the specially produced Greek Theater show, Mr. Mancini and The Kingston Trio will combine to present a program of music synonymous with all concerned.
